FATHER KUSTER TRANSFERRED. Comes from Jewett City to Assist Rev. J. J. Fleming Among Polish Popula-tion—A Gifted Young Man.

Rev. Frank J. Kuster of Jewett City Rev. Frank J. Kuster of Jewett City has been assigned assistant to Rev. J. J. Fleming of St. Joseph's parish of this city. The coming of Father Kuster to this city is due to the large and rapid growth of the Polish speaking people here, there being over 206 families of that nationality, numbering over 800 souls. Father Kuster celebrated his first mass at St. Joseph's church Sunday to a very large gathering of the Polish members of the congregation.

Father Kuster is a fluent speaker in both Polish and English. He is an American, his birthplace being Collinsville, Conn. Hhe spent several years in Poland in preliminary study and completed his seminary course at Galicia, Austria, where he was ordained in 1907. Since coming back to this country he spent one year as curate in 1307. Since coming back to this country he spent one year as curate in New-Milford; the past year he has been an able assistant to Father Fitzmaurice in Jewett City. His transfer here will be of much help to Father Fleming. Hereafter the mass for the Polish people will be at 9.15 a. m. on
